

Type	Chinook	Coho	Sockeye	Pink	Chum
Finger	Largest or Middle is king finger	Ring (wear a silver ring)	Pointing (you can sock someone's eye)	Pinky	Rhymes with thumb
Nickname	Spring, King or Tye	Silver	Red	Humpback, Humpie	Dog
Distinguishing Features	Largest species, large spots on back, dark mouth, black gums, v-shaped, silvery tail, highest in fat	Swift and active, spots on upper part of body, white mouth may have black edge, square tail	Best tasting, no spots on back or tail, glassy eyes, white mouth with white gum, small teeth. Landlocked sockeye rarely grow to more than 14 inches and are called "Kokanee".	Smallest species, large spots on back, white mouth, black gums, v-shaped tail but no silver	No spots on back or tail, white mouth, tongue may be black, large teeth
Age at Maturity	3 to 7 years	3 years	4 to 5 years	2 years	3 to 5 years
Photo	Chinook (King) Salmon  Ocean-phase adult Spawning-phase adult	Coho (Silver) Salmon  Ocean-phase adult Spawning-phase adult	Sockeye (Red) Salmon  Ocean Spawning	Pink (Humpy) Salmon  Ocean-phase adult Spawning-phase adult	Chum (Dog) Salmon  Ocean-phase adult Spawning-phase adult